

SOUTH CAROLINA WILDLIFE FEDERATION ART CONTEST

Calling all local artists! The South Carolina Wildlife Federation (SCWF) is launching a state-wide art contest to design the menu art for one of their upcoming events: “Forks, Knives, and Spoonbills: A Dinner Celebrating Conservation.” The dinner series partners with local chefs all over the state to create culinary dining experiences themed around imperiled species of birds.

ENTRY REQUIREMENTS

The Artwork

No more than one piece can be submitted per person. Artists can use any medium they feel comfortable with and submit a photograph of their work. We prefer digital images- jpg, gif, and png high res file types.

If you mail your art and want it returned, please include a self-addressed, stamped envelope to fit the artwork. We will keep a digital copy on file of all artwork submitted. Although care will be taken with submitted material, the South Carolina Wildlife Federation will not be responsible for damage or loss of artwork.

You, the Artist

You must submit a contest entry form to be considered. There is no entry fee. In addition please include your name, email address, art medium in the email or on the back of your entry. You can print a copy of the form and mail it to SCWF or submit it via email to mail@scwf.org. Feel free to elaborate on the story surrounding your piece. Note: *Contestants by their entry agree that the South Carolina Wildlife Federation may publish their images in the magazine or use on the SCWF website for the awards or at a later date. Credits will be given when images are used.
